Miscellaneous: The Lexington first was contested by 2-year-olds during Keeneland inaugural meeting in 1936. The race was run as an overnight handicap for 3-year-olds and up from 1938-41. It was returned to the stakes schedule in 1984 when official elevated the Calumet Purse – an important allowance race for 3-year-olds – to an added-money event and renamed it the Lexington Stakes.
